Easter 5

Intergenerational Church – making pizza faces.

PRAYER

Thank you, Lord for little things.
For the heart-warming little things
You have filled the world with them.
The golden, red and orange leaves of autumn.
The joy of seeing a bulb push through the earth.
Dear Lord, we give thanks for the life and resurrection,
Of your son Jesus our Saviour.
Not a little thing but the most powerful event.
We lift our thoughts to you in worship,
and thank you for your presence –
here in our midst.

Welcome

Welcome to Church this morning! A special welcome to Emma and Ethan Cussen as they bring little Gabriella for Baptism.

JUMPERS & JAZZ UPDATE

Our program now looks like this:

Friday 21st July: 9am-11:30am Church open for people to walk through our displays to Courtyard Coffee

Saturday 22nd July: 7:30am – 10am Jazzy Breakfast

Monday 24th July – Friday 29th July 9am-11:30am Church open for people to walk through our displays to Courtyard Coffee

★ Sundays will be worship days with musical focus.

There could be changes as plans go ahead, but excitement is growing!! There are many ways to be involved in the planning and helping.

- Roster for Church sitting is out now, check it out at morning tea.
- Helpers and ideas for the outside display needed.
- Those talented working with wool, we need you!

Theme for 2023 Jumpers and Jazz is 'Pathways'.

Theme for walk through display in the Church will be 'the life of Jesus'.

Reflections John 14: 1-14

This passage from John's Gospel is very familiar. It forms part of the farewell speech of Jesus to his disciples as he faces the Cross.

Firstly, Jesus promises the disciples a permanent existence with him, in life and beyond. He is acutely aware that their relationship will change with his death and resurrection, and he's offering assurance before the event.

This passage is often read at funerals for this very reason. "Whatever happens", is the promise, "I have already prepared a place for you." Jesus couldn't be clearer. There is a place, 'In my Father's house'. Wow!! What a promise.

"Where I am, you shall be there also" (v 4), this is truly a promise of relationship with Jesus beyond death. When Phillip asks to see the Father, Jesus again makes the declaration that He and the Father are one. This revelation is very clear in the Gospel of St. John.

Perhaps it doesn't need to be said, but these promises of Jesus are made to comfort troubled hearts. At that first Easter, the disciples are just devastated. We can go through similar heartache, when we lose a loved one, or when we face a devastating diagnosis. In times like these, we find our comfort, our strength, and our hope for the future, a future with Jesus our Lord and Saviour. God is our Rock and our Refuge forever. blessings, Rev May

CARE CORNER

- Pray for Grief and Loss. Hold the time in prayer for those participating and leading.
- Help those taking part to feel able to share the challenges which have made life traumatic following their loss.
- Pray for our baptism family, that they will feel welcome as we commit to ensuring we will care for Gabriella and all children as best we can.
- Give thanks for our volunteers who faithfully visit Akooramak, KMAC and Bromley Court sharing God's word in scripture and song.
- Give thanks for the Young Women's Group and their desire to learn more.

Thank you to our volunteers last Sunday and those who brought morning tea to share!
