Sunday 26th November
Christ the King Sunday

From Celtic Fest to our current Caledonian Committee, a taste of Scotland this morning as St Andrew's Day remembered by the Caledonians.

PRAYER

Pray, that we might proclaim that same love, through our words and our deeds, our witness, our very lives.

As Mother Teresa of Calcutta wrote:

"Jesus is the Word - to be spoken. Jesus is the truth - to be told.

Jesus is the light - to be lit. Jesus is the joy - to be shared.

Jesus is the peace - to be given. Jesus is the naked - to be clothed.

Jesus is the homeless - to be taken in. Jesus is the sick - to be healed.

Jesus is the lonely - to be befriended. Jesus is the unwanted - to be wanted.

Jesus is the prisoner to be visited, but above all,

Jesus is Love - to be revealed.

Welcome to worship on Christ the King Sunday as we gather in Killarney, online and as in Warwick we celebrate our Scottish history with our Caledonian friends remembering St Andrew's Day.

Reflections on Matthew 25: 31-46

This week marks the final week of our Church year, and our Lectionary reading. Next week we move into Advent of Year B, a time of watching and waiting for the coming of Jesus. But our reading over the last few weeks have been focused on watching and waiting, such as the ten bridesmaids and the servants waiting for the return of their Master.

Today most of our readings are telling us of the nature of our Saviour. The Old Testament tells us that we are the sheep of his pasture, that he is a Shepherd King. The New Testament readings celebrate the victory Christ has won.

The passage from Matthew speaks of the Judgment of the nations. The parable Jesus tells is one where people are judged on the actions they took, and the things they failed to do. Those who are judged unworthy ask, "But when did we see you naked or hungry or sick or in prison?" The reply is "When you failed to care for the least of these my little ones, you failed to care for me!"

Are we people who care for the sick, visit the prisoners, or help to feed and clothe others? Rather an awkward question when we consider all the Charities and live in a place that is very comfortable for us. How do we meet this imperative? It is much more than charitable actions. The Judge himself was a prisoner, was naked and was on the very margins of society.

When we identify with 'the least,' those people on the fringes of society, we stand beside our King, who has always identified himself as those who are powerless or poor. The surprise of those who were among the 'righteous' are also among those we might consider unlikely. How do we measure up in the eyes of our Judge? 'Loving Jesus, teach us to love those who are so hard to love, to draw them close to Your kingdom. Amen'

Blessings, May

Can you help?

We are having overseas visitors on Christmas Eve and Christmas Day and are needing the loan of a Port-a-Cot and a high chair for a 16 month old child. If you can help in anyway, please contact.

CARE CORNER

- Give thanks for rain which has refreshed our land:- helping to extinguish bushfires, replenishing parched grazing land, putting water in tanks for household and garden use.
- Congratulations to Amy Beck who is the dux of The Christian College.
- Pray for those who are grieving may they find comfort in family and friends.
- Remind us to be tolerant and understanding with those who are struggling with challenges caused by circumstances over which they have no control.
- Help us to be observant and show us ways to assist those who will not ask but need a helping hand.
- Bless all of our students and teachers as the school year ends.
