

The United Church in Australia
Warwick, Killarney & Freestone
Uniting Parish

Sunday 6th October 2024

*Welcome to worship as we continue to journey with the disciples.
May God bless you today as you join in either online or in the pew.
Please stay for a chat and a cuppa after the Service.*

When God promises to be with us, His presence includes:

God's Plan: "For I know the plans I have for you," declares the Lord, "plans to prosper you and not to harm you, plans to give you hope and a future." Jer 29:11

God's Protection "I am with you and will watch over you wherever you go, and I will bring you back to this land. I will not leave you until I have done what I have promised you." Genesis 28:15

God's Provision: "And my God will meet all your needs according to the riches of his glory in Christ Jesus." Philippians 4:19

God's Peace: "Though the mountains be shaken, and the hills be removed, yet my unfailing love for you will not be shaken nor my covenant of peace be removed," says the LORD, who has compassion on you." Isaiah 54:10

God's Power : "I also pray that you will understand the incredible greatness of God's power for us who believe him." Ephesians 1:19

God's Prize: "But we have this treasure in jars of clay to show that this all-surpassing power is from God and not from us. We always carry around in our body the death of Jesus, so that the life of Jesus may also be revealed in our body." 2 Corinthians 4:7,10

His plan, protection, provision, peace, power, and prize. The beauty is that God does know the way home. He knows how to get us out of the woods.

He knows how to get us to the other side of our dilemmas.

Our job is simply to cling to the promise of His presence.

Anyone seen these bad dudes – Charles and Donald - they're wanted – for winning the fashion stakes for the second year. Be warned – Charles wants to know the theme for next year's dinner. He plans to make it a trifecta.

Reflection on Hebrews 1:1-4, 2:5-12 and Mark 10:13-16

In so much that is happening around our world, many wonder Where is God? And what does he believe about the worth of people like us? Both these readings leave us in no doubt that God cares deeply about each one of us and he went to extraordinary lengths to make it possible for us to know him personally and to have a relationship with him.

Where is God? Right here; It is here in his love that we reflect to each other, and to the hurting and vulnerable around us. This reading from Hebrews opens with a contrast between the shadowy partial revelation of God in the past, and the fullness of that revelation of God in Christ. God bridged that gap between himself and humanity by becoming a human being, revealing himself by speaking through his Son, Jesus Christ.

When we know Jesus, we have all we need to be saved from the consequences of our sin and to have a perfect relationship with our God. The writer of Hebrews reminds us that, not only is Christ the exact representation of God, he is God himself, eternal, loving, gracious the complete expression of God in human form. Hebrews continues to stress what Jesus did for us, and what he still does through the power of the Holy Spirit.

Mark shows us this Jesus who welcomed little children into his arms, welcoming the great and the small of us, no matter who we are! We can reach out to grasp the Jesus who is right here with us, in our hearts, calling us to follow him. That's how much God believes in us! How much he loves us! The story of the children being welcomed by Jesus after being dismissed by the disciples is very comforting. Jesus' arms enfold all of us, all his adopted children.

He is here...and we do matter!

Shalom, Jean

- A special thank you to all our musicians, who bless us with their talents as we worship and to those busy fingers who prepare the data for each service.
- Pray for Brad and Julia Beck and their family on the death of Brad's mother.
- We pray to the God of life and love for those in hospital for routine or emergency care. Thankful for the dedication and skills of doctors and nurses in whom we entrust our lives. Bless their work, keep them safe along with their patients, that damaged and broken bodies might be made whole once more.
- Give thanks for the opportunity to welcome all from the community whatever the circumstance in a safe environment.
