KING?

King is your word not mine; Friend I am, and not very choosy, pagans and prostitutes, publicans and sinners, grace is my kingdom.

King is your word, not mine; Servant I am, no one beneath me, feet washer and waiter, serving the least, love is my kingdom

King is your word, not mine; Physician I am, all free of charge, touching the leper, expelling the demons, health is my kingdom.

King is your word, not mine; Tradesman I am, honing my craft, familiar with wood, hammer and nails, grace is my kingdom.

Reflection on Lectionary for this week. John 18:33-37

At the end of the Liturgical year, John's Gospel draws us close to the Easter story, when we look forward to the Advent period. The Church worldwide calls this Sunday 'The reign of Christ'. In reading the encounter between Pilate and Jesus, we see that juxtaposition of the seeming power of world leaders, against the power of Almighty God.

During his trial, the High Priest and his cronies have dragged Jesus to the headquarters of Governor Pilate who isn't interested in their squabbles, and tells them to judge Jesus, but they have no power to execute him, especially just before Passover. They were also terrified of the crowds who follow Jesus. So, Pilate asks Jesus, "Are you the King of the Jews?" to which he replies, "Do you ask this on your own, or has someone told you about me?" Well, answering a question with a question doesn't win a popularity contest!

Pilate is not impressed and is simply trying to get rid of this pesky Jew, for Pilate uses his power to destroy and bring fear, but the power Jesus has is to bring healing and new life. Jesus says, "My kingdom is not from this world. If my kingdom were from this world, my followers would be fighting to keep me from being handed over to the Jews."

Prayer: Loving Lord Jesus, remind us, you are a Power like no other. Remind us again that you offer healing and hope to all who call on your name.

Amen. Rev May
