Sunday 8th June 2025

Welcome to worship on this Day of Pentecost.
May God bless us today as we join online or in the pew.
Please stay for a chat and a cuppa after the service.

The gift of the Spirit to all flesh was the sign of the beginning of the new age for which the people had longed since the time of the prophets. A new age. A new language. New life. New possibilities for community riding into our world on the wind of God.

The winds of God blow through our lives in much the same fashion as they do through our days and nights. Some are the soft, inviting zephyrs of summer carrying the nods of dainty wildflowers and the hints of exotic southern climes; some are the more stirring breezes of late autumn nights. Others are the sudden wild dances of summer and winter storms bearing the rain and tossing the branches, into landscapes of imagination and realms of wonder. Still others are the mighty rushing winds that grasp you and pull you and turn you inside out. The winds wander; the winds rush; God speaks.

God speaks. God's Spirit comes to us. We are cleansed and made new. Our energies are re-born and restored. Visions and dreams come alive. The walls that divide are broken down, and in their place come the beginnings of a new community, a new communion. The wind blows where it will, and we are surprised out of our lethargy.

"The wind blows where it chooses, and you hear the sound of it, but you do not know where it comes from or where it goes. So, it is with everyone who is born of the Spirit" John 3:8 NRSV

Reflection on Acts 2: 1-21 Pentecost What a Celebration we enjoy today.

We are remembering the gift of the Holy Spirit, poured out on all those have gathered around the Apostles. Those who were gathered heard a sound like the rush of a violent wind, and it filled the house where they were gathered. Divided tongues of fire appeared amongst them, and a tongue of fire rested on each one of the.

Now, this event has never happened before, so these people are describing the day in the only words they can find. After they were touched, they began to speak in many languages, as the Holy Spirit gave them the ability.

They were filled with joy and rushed out into the streets to tell others what has happened, but some of those who heard them decided they were drunk. They could hear this group of Galileans speaking in their own languages. Another part of the crowd was astonished and asked. "What does this mean?" Peter rises to the occasion and begins to who preach/teach. "They are not drunk, as you suppose, it is only nine o'clock in the morning."

Peter shares with all who would listen the prophecy from Joel who has foreseen the coming of the Holy Spirit in power. God declares to Joel, "In the last days...I will pour out my Spirit on all flesh, and your sons and daughters will prophecy..."

The Pentecost Spirit brings spontaneous unity. No barriers apply any more, not age, gender, race, health, culture, wealth, or Denomination. Have we received that, Spirit; these barriers are part of the measure. When we raise these barriers to people, 'too old, too young, too rich, too sick,' we show that we are yet to arrive at the Unity that lies in the heart of God. Like children on a long car trip, perhaps we need to keep asking, "Are we there yet?" Rev May
