Sunday 15th November 2026

Welcome to worship on Pentecost 25.
May God bless us today as we join online or in the pew.
lease stay to share a chat and cuppa afterwards.

Thank you Rev Ian and Glenys for your leadership and friendship.

The Lord God trusts us more than we perhaps trust ourselves.
He entrusts to us the ability not only to become the persons and Christians, he has called us to be, but also to build up the Church and God's Kingdom. What a trust! He puts himself and the Church and the Kingdom into our hands! That trust is our responsibility.

Let us ask the Lord Jesus to enable us to respond fully to God's deep trust in us. For it is disheartening to see at times how people with much potential simply refuse to use their gifts. Are they afraid of committing themselves, of taking risks with people? Perhaps we too are fearful to take the risk of putting ourselves into the unknown. Lord our God, source of all that is good, through the gift of your Son Jesus Christ you have made us capable of sowing the seeds of your life and love. When you ask for an account of what we have done with our lives, may we hear from your own lips that we have been good and faithful servants who did much with the little we had,
Let us risk ourselves with the Lord here among us.

Can you support Sailing for the Disabled – Leslie Dam

Righteous God, our merciful master, you own the earth and all its peoples and you have given us all that we have. Inspire us to serve you with justice and wisdom and prepare us for the joy of the day of your coming, through Jesus Christ our Saviour and Lord.

Reflection on Matthew 25:14-30….Well Done!

Today's reading is another very familiar parable of Jesus to describe the Kingdom of God…the one about talents. Here, the Master goes on a journey, entrusting his servants with a huge amount of property, in fact all he has. His absence acts as a test in order to show just how they will use what they have been given.

As Jesus tells them this, he too is preparing to leave on his way to Calvary to give away everything for us. So, this parable reminds us that we have been entrusted with the greatest treasure of all – the gospel of Jesus Christ – and we will be held accountable for our stewardship of it.

Each of us has been given some wonderful gifts in Christ. All that we have and all that we become is God's gracious gift to us. We all have the potential to use our special talents for the furthering of the Kingdom of Heaven. This parable challenges us to move beyond our fears, to hand over our lives and talents and put them to work for the kingdom of God. Like those in the parable, some of us have many more gifts than others to invest in this work and some of us just a little. But the question posed in this story is "What have we done with all that has been given to us?"

Even that one talented servant should have put it to use instead of hiding it! Offer it and watch as God steps back, allowing us to have the pleasure of taking the initiative and experiencing the joy of achieving. He gives us freedom….but he also gives us the support we need to reach our potential. Together we can spread the Gospel of Jesus Christ around us. What have we done?… what can we still do? Let us hear God say, "Well done!"
Shalom, Jean

- Give thanks for the commitment so many in our Parish are willing to give for those of the wider community who come in need.
- Pray for our students nearing the end of the school year. Some need to make decisions affecting their future.
- Pray for members whose lifestyle is changing due to age or health related challenges. May the transition bring the reassurance of God's presence.
- Reach out to those who are grieving the loss of a loved one. A quiet word or a small gesture can make such a difference in the weeks of loneliness and sadness.
- Give thanks for Rev Ian and Glenys as they conclude their time in our Parish. We have been blessed by Ian's willingness to care for our congregations, deliver the word and share his musical skills while Rev Ansie is on leave.
