Welcome to worship on Christ the King Sunday.
May God bless us today as we join online or in the pew.
lease stay to share a chat and cuppa afterwards.

This picture says it all – Happy 60th wedding anniversary Rev May and John.

As you celebrate your long marriage, you are truly an inspiration to us all – a lasting love that endures life's journey through the years.

For twelve months we have been on a journey travelling through the Christian Church Year. We have followed in the steps of Jesus as he was born in a stable, as he walked the dusty hillsides of Galilee, opened blind eyes and made the lame to walk, as he taught the multitudes and the disciples, when he was crucified, and rose again. We celebrated the coming of the Holy Spirit at Pentecost, reflected on the mission of the Church, and the meaning of being a disciple of the Christ. Today is the last Sunday of that journey for this year.

We know that the Kingdom of God Jesus brought is a present reality in our lives. Yet we also know that there is a future Kingdom over which God will reign in Christ, a Kingdom in which the world will once again fully reflect its creator. Today we celebrate Christ as past, present, and future King over all the earth, at the same time that we express our hope and our Faith in that coming Kingdom.

On "Christ the King" Sunday we are reminded that God is with us through all the seasons of life. As we gather around the table today may you feel the freedom, the joy, the strength of Jesus' presence in your spirit. Remember his words? "Look, I am with you always; yes, to the end of time." (Matthew 28:20)

O God of power and might – your Son shows us the way of service and in him we inherit the riches of your grace. Give us the wisdom to know what is right and the strength to serve the world you have made – through Jesus Christ our Saviour and Lord who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever. Amen

Reflection on Matthew 25: 31-46

This week marks the final week of our Church year, and our Lectionary reading. Next week we move into Advent of Year B, a time of watching and waiting for the coming of Jesus. But our reading over the last few weeks have been focused on watching and waiting, such as the ten bridesmaids and the servants waiting for the return of their Master.

Today most of our readings are telling us of the nature of our Saviour. The Old Testament tells us that we are the sheep of his pasture, that he is a Shepherd King. The New Testament readings celebrate the victory Christ has won.

The passage from Matthew speaks of the Judgment of the nations. The parable Jesus tells is one where people are judged on the actions they took, and the things they failed to do. Those who are judged unworthy ask, "But when did we see you naked or hungry or sick or in prison?" The reply is "When you failed to care for the least of these my little ones, you failed to care for me!"

Do we care for the sick, visit the prisoners, or help to feed and clothe others? An awkward question when we consider all the Charities and live in a place that is very comfortable for us. How do we meet this imperative? It is much more than charitable actions. The Judge himself was a prisoner, was naked and was on the very margins of society.

When we identify with 'the least,' those people on the fringes of society, we stand beside our King, who has always identified himself as those who are powerless or poor. The surprise of those who were among the 'righteous' are also among those we might consider unlikely. How do we measure up in the eyes of our Judge? 'Loving Jesus, teach us to love those who are so hard to love, to draw them close to Your kingdom. Amen' Blessings, May Sadly, we are saying goodbye to Elizabeth – our administrative assistant - to facilitate completing her PhD. We wish her well with her studies and hope she can call in from time to time.

Thank you for keeping everything in our Parish Office organized - on track, your efficiency has made a real difference to every day. We appreciate renewed procedures – especially with regard to our safe church accountability. Your calm focus and attention to detail and for going the extra mile making everything run smoothly.

All requests are confidential.

- Give thanks for Rev Ansie's safe return home and pray that the demands of parish life will not overtake her designated time for holiday leave.
- Pray for Rev May's continuing healing after an extended time in hospital. Give thanks for their 60 years of marriage. "Sixty years of walking hand in hand is a true testament to God's grace and unfailing love. May He continue to fill your home with peace, joy, and rich blessings."
- Pray for Elizabeth as she dedicates time to her PhD may there be clarity of mind, steady focus, and endurance for the long days of research and writing.
- As we undertake the recruitment of an Office administrator may we be respectful: treating each applicant with equality and fairness.

Father bless us as we go
